

CONTENTS

Executive Summary	7
I. INTRODUCTION	10
II. INSTITUTIONAL PROBLEMS THAT INFLUENCE COMPLIANCE WITH AUTO 092 OF 2008	16
1. Partial and Disjointed Normative Response	17
2. Lack of an Adequate and Reliable Register	19
2.1 Problems with the Legal Register	19
2.2 Lack of Integration between Registers	22
3. Problems of Coordination between Institutional Platforms for Dialogue	23
4. Lack of Inter-Sectorial Approaches	25
5. Problems with Oversight Provided by the Inspector General's Office	26
5.1 Results of Interventions in Criminal Procedures	27
5.2 Analysis of Procedures to Evaluate and Monitor Public Policy	27
6. Lack of Strategy in the Higher Council of the Judiciary	30
7. Obstacles to Effective Dialogue	31
III. PROBLEMS WITH ACCESS TO JUSTICE IN CASES OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE ASSOCIATED WITH ARMED CONFLICT	34
1. Lack of Guarantees for Victims Who Make Complaints and of Respect for Victims	37
2. Impunity	39
2.1 Relevant Figures: Almost Complete Impunity	39
2.2 Lack of Investigative Strategies to Overcome Impunity	42
3. Lack of Clarity in Methods to Respond to Complaints and Conduct Investigations	43
4. The Narrow Interpretation of Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict	44
5. Continued Patterns of Discrimination and Re-Victimization	46
6. Problematic Aspects of Training Programs	46
7. Lack of Measures by which to Guarantee Legal Accompaniment	48
8. Lack of Measures for Reparation in Criminal Proceedings	49
9. Policies that Cast Doubt on Victims' Guarantees to Justice	50
IV. PROBLEMS WITH PROTECTION MEASURES	54
1. Recognition of the Constitutional Court that Women Should be Provided with Specific and Differential Protection	56
2. Problems Related to Institutional Structures and the Effectiveness of Protection Measures	58
2.1 Differentiation Between Protection Programs	58
2.2 Lack of an Effective Gender-Based Approach	59
2.3 Problems with the Implementation of Protective Measures	60
3. Lack of Coordination Between Protection Programs and Criminal Investigations	61

V. PROBLEMS WITH HEALTH-RELATED ASSISTANCE	64
1. Lack of Coordination in the Provision of Care for the Consequences of Sexual Violence	65
2. Lack of a Psycho-Legal Approach in Criminal Procedures	68
VI. CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS	70