

Organization of American States

OEA/Ser.L/V/II
CIDH/RELE/INF. 1/09
December 30, 2009
Original: Spanish

THE INTER-AMERICAN LEGAL FRAMEWORK REGARDING THE RIGHT TO ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Office of the Special Rapporteur for Freedom of Expression
Inter American Commission on Human Rights

2010

Internet: <http://www.cidh.org/relatoria>

Email : cidhexpresion@oas.org

OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR FOR FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION
INTER AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

The Inter-American Legal Framework regarding the Right to Access to Information

INDEX

TABLE OF ACRONYMS AND REFERENCES .....	viii
PROLOGUE .....	ix
THE RIGHT TO ACCESS TO INFORMATION IN THE INTER-AMERICAN LEGAL FRAMEWORK .....	1
A. Introduction .....	1
B. Guiding Principles of the Right of Access to Information .....	2
1. Principle of maximum disclosure .....	3
a. The right of access to information is the rule and secrecy the exception.....	3
b. Burden of proof on the State when limits on the right of access to information are established .....	4
c. Preeminence of the right of access to information in the event of conflicting statutes or lack of regulation.....	4
2. Principle of Good Faith .....	5
C. Content and scope of the right of access to Information .....	5
1. Every person has the right of access to information .....	5
2. Subjects with obligations under the right of access to information .....	5
3. Object of the right .....	6
4. State obligations in the right of access to information .....	6
a. Obligation to respond in a timely, complete, and accessible manner to requests .....	6
b. Obligation to offer a legal recourse that satisfies the right of access to information....	7
c. Obligation to provide an adequate and effective legal remedy for reviewing denials of requests for information .....	7
d. Obligation of active transparency.....	8
e. Obligation to produce or gather information.....	9
f. Obligation to create a culture of transparency.....	10
g. Obligation of adequate implementation .....	10
h. Obligation to adjust domestic legislation to the demands of the right of access to information.....	10
5. Limitations to the right of access to information.....	11
a. Admissibility and conditions of limitations .....	11
b. Exceptional nature of limitations .....	12
c. Legal establishment of exceptions.....	12
d. Legitimate aim under the American Convention .....	12
e. Necessity and proportionality of limitations .....	12
f. Duty to justify clearly the denial of petitions for access to information under the control of the State .....	13
g. Confidential or secret information .....	13
h. Personal information and the right of access to information .....	15
D. Specific Applications of the Right of Access to Information .....	16
1. Restriction of access to official sources of information in the form of public events or acts .....	16
2. Access to information and indigenous peoples' right to consultation .....	16
3. Access to information and the creation and preservation of police archives.....	19
4. Access to information and the creation of historic archives on gross violations of human rights .....	20

a.	Duty to allow access to files containing information related to violations of human rights .....	21
b.	Duty to create and preserve archives on gross violations of human rights .....	21
c.	Duty to turn over information linked to gross violations of human rights .....	23
E.	National jurisprudence and access to information best practices in domestic law .....	23
1.	Jurisprudence on the right of access to information as a fundamental autonomous right .....	24
2.	Jurisprudence on the universal nature of access to information .....	26
3.	Jurisprudence on the principle of maximum disclosure .....	27
a.	Jurisprudence on the principle of maximum disclosure as the central tenet of access to information .....	27
b.	Jurisprudence on the application of the principle of maximum disclosure in ordering access to information on public advertising .....	29
c.	Jurisprudence on the definition of a public document .....	30
d.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to narrowly construe the exceptions to the general principle of maximum disclosure .....	31
4.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to respond in a timely, thorough and accessible manner .....	32
a.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to provide a simple, quick and free administrative procedure for access to information .....	32
b.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to provide an adequate and effective judicial recourse .....	33
c.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to inform petitioners on the source, location, and format in which previously publicized information can be accessed .....	34
d.	Jurisprudence on due diligence and administrative assistance with regard to the right of access to information .....	35
e.	Jurisprudence on assent by default ( afirmativa ficta ) .....	36
5.	Jurisprudence on the right of access to information and personal information .....	37
a.	Jurisprudence on access to information and personal rights .....	37
b.	Jurisprudence on the right to access information regarding persons who are or have been public officials .....	38
c.	Jurisprudence on the right to know the salaries or incomes of public resources .....	39
d.	Jurisprudence on access to information on "uncollectable" tax debts .....	41
e.	Jurisprudence on access to personal information of uninformed third parties and the scope of the State's obligations in the face of an especially onerous request for information .....	43
f.	Jurisprudence on the right of access to archives and public records containing information on the petitioner .....	46
6.	Jurisprudence regarding restrictions on the right of access to information .....	47
a.	Jurisprudence on the general regime of limits to the right of access to information ..	47
b.	Jurisprudence on the necessity of setting limits by law .....	48
c.	Jurisprudence on the need for laws that establish limitations that are clear and precise, not vague or generic .....	48
d.	Jurisprudence on the need for limited and reasonable time limits to be established on confidential information .....	48
e.	Jurisprudence on the need for strict proportionality when the confidential nature of information is invoked .....	49
f.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to prepare a public version of a document when the requested information is partially confidential .....	51
g.	Jurisprudence on the State's duty to demonstrate causality and proof of damage in order to invoke the confidentiality of an administrative procedure .....	52
7.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to submit a denial of documents for reasons of national security to judicial review in chambers and at the discretion of the magistrate .....	53
8.	Jurisprudence on the obligation to not censor confidential information that has been made public, nor persecute journalists or editors for their good-faith publication of the information .....	54

APPENDIX .....	55
A. AMERICAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS.....	55
Article 13. Freedom of Thought and Expression .....	55
B. INTER-AMERICAN DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES ON FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION .....	56
C. RESOLUTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES 2009 AG/RES. 2514 (XXXIX-O/09) .....	59