

THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN ECUADOR

345
C44A

R. 4973

Laura Chinchilla and David Schodt

Table of Contents

PREFACE	9
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	13
I. ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AND SOCIOPOLITICAL DEVELOPMENT	17
A. Description of the Country	17
B. Historical Background	19
1. Ecuador Prior to the 1980s	19
2. Economic and Political Changes in the 1980s and Early 1990s	25
II. THE JUSTICE SYSTEM	30
A. The National Congress	30
B. The Judiciary	33
1. Structure and Functions	33
2. Budget	36
3. Personnel	39
4. Caseloads	43
5. Planning and Evaluation	45
C. The Attorney General's Office	47
1. Structure and Functions	47
2. Budget	48
3. Personnel	48

4. Caseloads	51
5. Planning and Evaluation	52
D. The Legal Defense System	52
1. Private Legal Defense	52
2. Court Appointed Counsel	53
3. Public Defenders	53
4. Legal Clinics	53
E. The Police	54
1. Structure and Functions	54
2. Personnel	57
3. Control and Supervision	57
F. The Correctional System	59
1. Financial Resources and Infrastructure	60
2. Personnel	61
3. Inmate Population	61
4. Other Factors	62
III. CRIMINAL PROCEDURE	64
A. Instructional Stage (Sumario)	65
B. Intermediate Stage	66
C. Trial Stage (Plenario)	67
D. Appeal	68
IV. PROBLEMS FACING THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE	68
A. Normative	68
B. Social	70
C. Narcotics	72
D. Independence	76

E. Accessibility	78
F. Efficiency	81
G. Fairness	88
H. Accountability	90
CONCLUSION	93
BIBLIOGRAPHY	95

TABLES

1. Congressionally Appropriated Judicial Sector Budget, 1973-1991	40
2. Narcotics Cases as a Percentage of Total Criminal Cases, 1980-1989	75

FIGURES

1. Organization of the Judiciary	34
2. Salaries of Judicial Officials by Salary Grade	45
3. Organization of the Attorney General's Office	49